STUDY THE BIBLE1 Corinthians 12:4-11

Read Aloud: Have someone or a few people read 1 Corinthians 12:4-11.

Discussion: What repeated truths anchor this section on spiritual gifts?

Why does Paul say gifts are given for the common good?

How might this challenge comparison in the church?

1 Corinthians 12:12-18

Read Aloud: Have someone read 1 Corinthians 12:12-18.

Discussion: What main image does Paul use to describe the church?

What lies does Paul confront in verses 15-16?

How might this passage encourage you or believers who feel overlooked?

1 Corinthians 12:19-22

Read Aloud: Have someone read aloud 1 Corinthians 12:19-22.

Discussion: Why would sameness be a problem for the body?

What does Paul say about parts that seem weaker?

How can we as a Life Group grow in this kind of mutual honor?

CONNECT TO CHRIST (APPLY GOD'S WORD)

Discussion: How does our passage this week point to Jesus?

Application: Choose one of the following ways to apply the study to your life this week:

Thank God for one gift, strength, or role he has given you, and ask for grace to use it faithfully rather than compare it with someone else's.

Encourage another believer whose contribution may be less visible, helping build a culture of honor in the body.

Take one concrete step to serve your church this week in a way that benefits others rather than drawing attention to yourself.

CENTER OF ALL THINGS: Colossians 1:15–29CREATE INTEREST

Question: When life feels busy or unstable, what do you instinctively build your week around?

STUDY THE BIBLE

Colossians 1:15–20

Read Aloud: Have someone read Colossians 1:15–20.

Discussion: What does this passage say about who Jesus is and what he has done?

How might seeing Jesus as the one who holds “all things” together shape the way you handle pressure this week?

What does it mean that God is reconciling “all things” to himself through Christ, and how does that broaden our view of the cross?

Colossians 1:21–23

Read Aloud: Have someone or a few people read Colossians 1:21–23.

Discussion: How does Paul describe believers’ past, present, and future?

Where do you feel tempted to “shift from the hope of the gospel,” and how could this passage call you back?

How do these verses hold together God’s promise to present believers holy with the call to continue in the faith?

Colossians 1:24–29

Read Aloud: Have someone read aloud Colossians 1:24–29.

Discussion: How does Paul describe his ministry and the “mystery” he proclaims?

What would it look like for you to pursue someone else’s maturity in Christ this week, relying on Christ’s power?

How does Paul's readiness to rejoice in suffering for the church challenge common assumptions about comfort and success in ministry?

CONNECT TO CHRIST (APPLY GOD'S WORD)

Discussion: How does our passage this week point to Jesus?

Application: Choose one of the following ways to apply the study to your life this week:

Read Colossians 1:15–20 aloud several times this week and worship Jesus as the one who made you, holds you, and reconciled you to God.

Identify one area where you have been trying to hold everything together on your own. Bring it to Christ in prayer and ask for help to trust his steady care.

Ask God to show you one person you can help move toward maturity in Christ. Take a simple step to encourage, pray for, or walk alongside them this week.

JESUS IS GREATER: Hebrew 1:1-14

CREATE INTEREST

Question: What makes some voices carry more weight than others in your life?

STUDY THE BIBLE

Hebrews 1:1-4

Read Aloud: Have someone read Hebrews 1:1-4.

Discussion: What contrast opens this chapter?

What titles or descriptions of Jesus stand out most to you?

Why does purification for sins matter in a chapter so focused on glory?

Hebrews 1:5-9

Read Aloud: Have someone or a few people read Hebrews 1:5-9.

Discussion: Why does the writer compare Jesus with angels?

What do these verses reveal about the identity of Jesus?

How could this reality of who Jesus is shape your worship of him?

Hebrews 1:10-14

Read Aloud: Have someone read aloud Hebrews 1:10-14.

Discussion: What contrast appears between creation and the Son?

Why is the image of sitting at God's right hand important?

How might knowing that creation will wear out but the Son remains the same shape the way you handle change or uncertainty in your life?

CONNECT TO CHRIST (APPLY GOD'S WORD)

Discussion: How does our passage this week point to Jesus?

Application: Choose one of the following ways to apply the study to your life this week:

Spend time this week worshiping Jesus for who he is, not only for what he gives, using Hebrews 1 as a guide.

Bring one area of fear or instability before Christ, trusting the unchanging Son who sustains all things.

Refuse any small view of Jesus by letting his authority shape one decision, attitude, or priority this week.
